Long Live The Queen
Homage to Her Majesty Queen Sirikit
On Her Eightieth Birthday Anniversary
On the Twelfth of August 2012

On this most auspicious occasion
Of Her Majesty’s birthday
Let us praise her lasting glory.
Her insight has spread well-being to her subjects.

Her magnanimity towards the people
Has fostered their happiness and alleviated their misery.
Her reputation has travelled far and wide.
Her perseverance has produced tangible gains.

Fortunate is the nation and its people.
Her generosity and unfailing support
Have given birth to “SUPPORT” project for the common good
Relieving many woes and achieving wonders.

Her virtues shine like precious jewels
That shed light on all our lives
Restoring forests and sustaining wild life
Giving lushness to the land.

May the gods and the glorious triple gems
Bestow their blessings upon Her Majesty.
May she live a long life in joy and health
Through our most humble wishes.
